The PENNSYLVANIA GAZETTE.

Containing the Freſheſt Advices, Foreign and Domeſtick.

By the HONOURABLE
JAMES HAMILTON, Eſq;
Lieutenant Governor, and Commander in Chief, of the Province of Pennſylvania, and Counties of Newcaſtle, Kent, and Suſſex, on Delaware,

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS it appears to me, by ſundry Depoſitions taken before Thomas Lawrence, Eſq; one of His Majeſty's Juſtices of the Peace for the County of Philadelphia, that on Saturday, the firſt Inſtant, the Day John Thomas, and Eleanor Davis, were barbarouſly kill'd in her Dwelling-houſe in Cheſter County, three Men, Strangers, who had travell'd on Foot from Kent County, in the Province of Maryland, or ſome other Part of that Province, were ſeen very near the ſaid Dwelling-houſe, under ſuch particular Circumſtances, as give very juſt Reaſon to ſuſpect they committed thoſe horrid Facts; which Suſpicion is ſtrongly confirm'd by their ſudden diſappearing after the Perpetration of the Crimes, altho' they had travell'd openly on the High-Road for two Days before toward the ſaid Houſe.

And it appearing to me by the ſaid Depoſitions, that one of the ſaid Men was about Twenty-two Years of Age, tall, and very ſlender, of a thin viſag'd, ill favour'd, of a ſwarthy or Sun-burnt Complexion, wore an old hat, Check Shirt, Trowſers, and a black or very dark colour'd Bear-ſkin Waiſtcoat, had a Sore or Wound almoſt on the Inſide of his right Thigh, a little above his Knee; that he carried a long Wallet ſtuffed very full, and a Bundle of darkiſh colour'd Clothes; that he produced a Paſs ſign'd by a Perſon who he ſaid was a Juſtice of the Peace in Kent County in Maryland, wherein he was call'd Thomas Kelly; under which Paſs was a Certificate, as it ſhould be, that the ſaid Perſon was one of the Juſtices in Kent County in Maryland, ſign'd by the Clerk of the ſame County, and atteſted with that County Seal.

That another of the ſaid Men appeared to be about Twenty-five Years of Age, of a very fair, but not a ruddy Complexion, round Viſage, of middle ſiz'd Stature, but thick and well proportioned, had his Hair cut off, wore a good Hat, a white Cap, and Waiſtcoat, a fine white Linnen Shirt, Check Trowſers, very wide, but had on a Pair of good Shoes, and large Silver Buckles; that he produced a Paſs, as from a Juſtice of the Peace, living in Kent County aforeſaid, and a Diſcharge from his Maſter, in the ſame County; the Paſs was dated the 16th of July, 1752; it was wrote with very pale Ink, except the Figures (16th) the Juſtice's Name, and the Words (Kent County, in Maryland) on the left Side of the Seal at Bottom, which were all wrote with black Ink; the Seal alſo was only a round Mark, made with Ink, placed at the End of the Juſtice's Name.

That the third Man appear'd to be about Thirty or Thirty-five Years of Age, tall, but not very ſlender, of a dark Complexion, thin viſag'd, with a ſharp Noſe, wore his Hair, and had a black Cloth or Handkerchief tied round one of his Legs, as if he walk'd bending forward, remarkably ſticking out his Buttocks before, and had an uncommon Kind of hobbling Gait; wore a Suit of Cloaths, in which was a Coat, on one Side of a brown, the other Side of a grey Colour, but the Colour of the Out or Inſide partly, was not remembered, and that by their Manner of pronouncing Engliſh, they all appeared to be Natives of Ireland.

All Perſons are therefore, in his Majeſty's Name, to require and command the Magiſtrates, Sheriffs, Conſtables, and Officers of Juſtice within this Province, and other his ſaid Majeſty's Liege Subjects in general the ſame; and alſo to intreat all Governors of, and Magiſtrates, Officers, and Liege People reſiding in any of the neighbouring Provinces, to purſue and apprehend, or cauſe to be purſued and apprehended, the above deſcribed Perſons, and them to ſecure, that they may be examin'd and dealt with according to Law.

GIVEN under my Hand, and the Great Seal of the ſaid Province, at Philadelphia, the eighteenth Day of Auguſt, in the Year of our Lord One Thouſand Seven Hundred and Fifty-two, and in the Twenty-ſixth Year of his Majeſty's Reign.

JAMES HAMILTON.

By the Honour's Command,
RICHARD PETERS, Secretary. GOD ſave the KING.

In Aſſembly, the 12th Day of the Month called Auguſt, 1752.

Reſolved, That ONE HUNDRED and FIFTY POUNDS, Part of Money of this Province, be paid out of the Publick Treaſury, as a Reward to any Perſon or Perſons, who ſhall apprehend and ſecure the three Murderers of Eleanor Davis, and John Thomas, ſo that they may be brought to Juſtice; or FIFTY POUNDS per Head for any of them."

Copy from the Minutes,
WILLIAM FRANKLIN, Clerk of the Aſſembly.

Boſton, June 2. The Maſter of a Ship arrived here from Smyrna gives Advice, that ſome Days before his Departure from thence a Fire broke out in that Part of the City inhabited by the Franks, which burnt down a great Number of Houſes; and that two Days after another Fire broke out in the Quarter inhabited by the Jews, which did alſo very conſiderable Damages. The Maſter of a Ship juſt arrived here from the Coaſt of Barbary, not only confirms the Confirmation of the eldeſt Son of the Bey of Tunis's having defeated his Father's Army, and forced him to take Shelter in the Town of Bardo; but likewiſe adds, that the Father had been obliged to ſurrender to his Son after a Siege of ten Days; and that the Son thereupon committed him to Priſon, with ſtrict Orders to the Guards who have the Care of him, to cauſe his Eyes to be put out, and to ſtrangle him, in caſe he or his Party ſhould make the leaſt Attempt to procure his Liberty.

Baſle, June 12. Laſt Week a Number of Families paſſed by here from the Counties of Budingen and Birſtein; they were going to Holland, in order to embark for New-England and Nova-Scotia.

Zurich, June 24. We learn from Zurich, that one of the Villains that infeſted thoſe Parts was taken a few Days ago, and put to the Torture, in order to make him impeach his Accomplices; but having been ſo unnatural as to poiſon his Father and Mother, and five Brothers and Siſters; for which he was broke upon the Wheel.

Paris A-la-main, July 3. The Parliament met ſeveral Times laſt Week to deliberate upon the Facts concerning the Refuſal of the Sacraments; but the Aſſemblies which are held upon this Subject are at preſent ſo ſecret, that there is no knowing what was the Reſult of them. The Parliament the other Day ſent a Deputation to the King, which his Majeſty received very favourably.

Bruſſels, July 3. The Sieur Torre having cauſed a pointed Iron Rod to be erected upon the Top of his Houſe, with Deſign, in ſome Meaſure, to diſſipate the Fire which is in the Air, during the Time of a Storm, has ſucceeded therein beyond his Expectation: On the 23d of laſt Month, at Night, though there was but a ſlight Appearance of a Storm, ſhining Sparks were drawn from that Rod, but weaker than thoſe drawn from an electrify'd Bar; on the 26th at Night a dark Cloud covered the Sky, and a heavy Rain, mix'd with Hail, fell, when People were ſurpriſed to feel and to ſee, that a Finger held at the Diſtance of two Inches from the Rod, excited very ſtrong Sparks. Theſe Phœnomena greatly increaſed upon a Clap of Thunder being heard; inſomuch that the Sparks grew conſiderably longer, larger and brighter. There is Reaſon to believe by this Experiment, that the pointed Rod or Bar may be of great Uſe in diminiſhing the Quantity of Fire from whence Thunder is formed, and in preventing the fatal Effects of Lightning.

Leghorn, June 23 The Malteſe Gallies, which were returned into their own Port with two Algerine Chebecks lately taken by them in the Sardinian Seas, are put to Sea again, being reinforced with two Men of War, the one of 40, and the other of 30 Guns, and are ſailed for the Eccleſiaſtical State, where they are to join the Pope's Gallies, and then go together on a Cruize in Queſt of the Barbary Corſairs, who continue greatly to interrupt the Navigation of that Coaſt. The Maſter of a Ship, which arrived in this Port on Wedneſday laſt from Salonica, reports, that he had been informed by the Maſter of a Veſſel he met at Sea, that the Differences between the French and the Tripolitans were as good as reconciled, the Dey having aſſured the French Miniſter, that the Regency were ready to give the King his Maſter all the Satisfaction that could be required; but no French Ships will venture to put to Sea from hence for the Levant, on that Information.

Chamberry, June 28. In conformity to the King's Orders, ſeveral Proteſtant Families, who lately reſided at St. Victor and Chapitre, have retired from thence, ſome into Switzerland, and others into the Territories of the Republick of Geneva.

Bath, July 6. On Wedneſday Evening laſt, about Ten o'Clock, John Bacon, Eſq; (who died here a few Days before) was privately interr'd near the Altar-piece in the Abbey-Church of this City. He deſired his Friends that were by him, a few Hours before he expired, to let him be put in his Coffin in the following manner, viz. to have his beſt Wig on, with a ruffled Shirt, and Stone Buttons in the Sleeves, a ſmall Ring on his Finger, a laced Waiſtcoat, and a plain Coat, with black Velvet Breeches, a new Pair of Pumps, with Stone Buckles in them, and a clean Pair of white Stockings; that he ſhould be privately interred in the above Church, and that his Servants ſhould ſupport his Pall in their Liveries.

LONDON, June 13.

An Extract of a Letter from Paris, dated June 6.

"Matters here, between the Clergy and Parliament, are in a terrible Convulſion. The former is countenanced by the Court, and the latter have the Well-wiſhes of the People. The worſt Things are apprehended from the Fury of theſe laſt. Times paſt have ſhewn what Lengths the Pariſians have gone in Caſes of the like Nature, where Religion has been the Motive of their Diſſatisfaction. The King, as a good Father, is very deſirous of making his People eaſy, and of preventing the bad Conſequences which are likely to reſult from theſe Diviſions; but it is very much doubted whether the Zeal of his Majeſty is capable of effecting this: It is an Affair wherein People's Conſciences are intereſted, and wherein a Sovereign, when he interpoſes, very rarely ſucceeds, whether he makes uſe of gentle or vigorous Methods.

The Parliament, who know their own Strength, and who never act with Heat when Things come to Extremity, at this Time ſhew their utmoſt Grandeur by the majeſtick Strength with which they make their Remonſtrances to the King. His Majeſty ſees the Solidity of the Reaſons offered by this Body, and would yield to them; but the Clergy have ſuch Influence over this Monarch, that the Parliament can really gain no Ground. Things muſt needs grow worſe and worſe, if a Judgment may be formed from the Choice which the King has made of the Prelates, who are appointed to be Part of the Eccleſiaſtical Council. In the mean Time, external Affairs are neglected, the Miniſtry having ſcarcely any Time to reflect thereupon. The Powers, who oppoſe the Meaſures of this Court, take Advantage of theſe Domeſtick Troubles, which tear the Kingdom in Pieces, and greatly weaken the French Nation.

We hear that moſt of the Cities of the Kingdom have followed the Examples of this Capital; and that the Diſſention has every where the ſame Object for its Motive, which, 'tis ſaid, throws the Court into an extreme Embarraſſment, and which may poſſibly cauſe the Miniſtry to find Employment for buſy reſtleſs Minds, by entering into a new War, which would probably prevent the threatened Conſequences of theſe Diviſions, and Parties formed thereupon: For 'tis an unerring Obſervation, that the French are never better Subjects, nor more ſubmiſſive, than when their publick Affairs go ill."

June 20. According to ſome Advices from Rome, they have a Sett of Politicians in that City who are very ingenious in creating Phantoms and Spectres: A Turk of high Rank is come to Florence to gratify his Curioſity, and improve himſelf by a Tour through the principal Cities of Italy; and already thoſe ſharpſighted Politicians fanſy they ſee the Grand Signior running away with the immenſe Treaſures of Loretto, and plundering the Capital of the Chriſtian World; for they can't be beat out of the Notion that this travelling Turk comes as a Spy to ſurvey the Strength and Weakneſs of Italy, to the End that his Nation may turn their Arms that Way, in caſe of another general War in Europe.

June 23. We are informed that next Seſſions Application will be made to the Parliament for a Reward for the Diſcovery of a Medicine which effectually cures freſh Wounds made with Iron or Steel in two or three Days. A Medicine of this Kind muſt certainly be of great Uſe in the Time of War, as it requires no chirurgical Skill in the Application, ſo that every Soldier may dreſs his own Wounds, or aſſiſt another in the ſame Operation. When Commodore Anſon took Payta, the firſt Hints of this Medicine were found in a Memorandum Book belonging to the Governor of that Place, and it has ſince received conſiderable Improvements, and its Efficacy confirmed by repeated Trials.

Laſt Saturday 281,800 Yards of Iriſh Linnen was entered at the Cuſtom-Houſe, brought over in the Draper, Capt. Moore from Belfaſt.

An Extract of a Letter from the Hague, dated June 22.

"Though all Europe is in Negociation, nothing important has yet, at leaſt, been tranſacted. In Spain, People are amuſed with a Review of the Troops of that Kingdom, which his Catholick Majeſty is preparing to take, and which is the greater Curioſity there as none of his Predeceſſors ever took one. In France, ſcarce any Thing elſe is talked of than the turbulent Spirit of the Biſhops, and the Reſolutions of the Parliament, who ſeem determined to make them ſhew due Reſpect to the Law, and to prevent every Occaſion of Schiſm. Things have been carried to ſuch a Height that there was great Reaſon to apprehend the Conſequences, eſpecially if what was reported had been true, that the King had recall'd Cardinal Tencin from his Biſhoprick, whom Madame Pompadour and the Miniſtry had cauſed to be chaſed from the Court, in order to put him at the Head of the new Council of Eccleſiaſticks and Seculars: This Cardinal, the Archbiſhops of Sens and Paris, and the antient Biſhop of Mirepoix, are alone capable, under the Direction of the Society of Jeſuits, to put the whole Kingdon into a Combuſtion: And wherefore? Why, not through Zeal for the Houſe of God, nor for the Sake of Religion, for which their Manner of Life ſhews they have little Regard, and which ſaves the Trouble of giving their Characters at large; but the three laſt in Hopes of meriting a Cardinal's Hat, after which the Archbiſhop of Sens and the old Biſhop of Mirepoix have long aſpired.

The King was ſo extremely perplexed to know which Party to chuſe when he found all the Parliaments were united, that he diſcovered his Uneaſineſs in the Preſence of a Duke, who is a Wit, and great Favourite, who ſaid to his Majeſty, Parbleu, Sire, your Majeſty has nothing to do but to diſmiſs the Parliament: But, ſaid the King, how ſhall I get another? Eaſily, replied the Favourite; let the Archbiſhop of Paris nominate one. This Bonne Mot was not thrown away, having cauſed the King to reflect, and to act differently to what was expected; inſomuch that, we are now told, another Council of Conſcience is appointed, of a contrary Caſt, at the Head of which the Cardinal de la Rochefoucault, a pious Prelate, and an honeſt Man, is put. This makes it believed that Things will ſhortly alter. The neighbouring Courts, however, are not diſpleaſed with theſe Troubles in France; for ſo long as the Miniſtry ſhall be thus embarraſſed, they will let their Neighbours remain quiet."

Monday laſt arriv'd here the Ship Myrtilla, Captain Budden, from London, by whom we have the following Advices.

PARIS, July 3.

THE 30th of laſt Month Ali Effendi, Envoy from the Regency of Tripoli, who arriv'd here ſome Time ago, had an Audience of M. Rouille, Miniſter and Secretary of State for the Department of the Marine, on the News that the Bey of that Regency had complied with the King's Deſire, and given all the Satisfaction requir'd by his Majeſty.

Paris, July 8. We hear from Nantz, that one of the King's Ships is arriv'd at Breſt from Martineco, with the News, or rather a Confirmatiou, of a great Fire having happen'd at St. Peter's Fort and Town on that Iſland on the 7th of May, which in leſs than ſix Hours conſum'd about 250 Houſes, with the greateſt Part of the Goods and Effects therein. The Loſs occaſion'd by this Conflagration is eſtimated at upwards of five Millions of Livres. The Negroes are ſuſpected of being the Authors of this Diſaſter.

Conſtantinople, May 24. The Captain Baſhaw, or High Admiral, put to Sea on Wedneſday Morning laſt with a Fleet of ten Men of War, and the like Number of Gallies, Part of which are to cruize off the Coaſt of Barbary, to protect the Navigation of the Regencies of Africa, and the Remainder are to ſail to the Iſlands of the Archipelago, in order to collect the annual Tributes which the Inhabitants of thoſe Iſlands pay to the Sultan. The laſt Advices receiv'd here from Perſia ſeem to give this Court ſome Uneaſineſs, and 'tis ſaid, that Meaſures will ſoon be taken for ſtopping the Progreſs of Prince Heraclius of Georgia, whoſe great Power, 'tis thought, may ſoon become prejudicial to this Empire.

Madrid, June 20, It is confirmed, that the Marquis Grimaldi, whom the King has ordered to repair from Stockholm to Hanover, is charged to endeavour to ſettle with the Duke of Newcaſtle all the Points yet in diſpute between Spain and England.

Modena, June 27. It is obſervable that ſince the News of the ſigning the Treaty of Madrid, Conferences have been more frequent than uſual at Court, and the Duke, our Sovereign, has held ſeveral extraordinary Councils with his Miniſters. We don't know the Reſult of theſe Councils; but it is worth noting, that of late the Troops are exerciſed twice a Week, all the Calvalry is remounted, the Soldiers new cloathed, and great Quantities of Arms brought to the Arſenal of this City.

Vienna, June 1. The great Chancellor Count d'Ublefeldt, who has been ſome Time indiſpoſed at Carelſbad, is expected here forthwith, in order to put the finiſhing Hand to ſome important Affairs that require his Preſence, particularly the new Arangements between this Court and that of Berlin, which are ſaid to be almoſt as good as concluded.

Ratiſbon, July 5. The Affair of Eaſt-Friſeland becomes very ſerious: The King of Pruſſia's late Memorial affords much Occupation to the Dyet; and, if it be true, as ſome ſay, that the Court of Hanover is drawing up a Declaration, in Anſwer to what is advanced in the ſaid Memorial concerning the Dutchy of Saxe-Lunenbourg, all the Miniſters here have Work enough upon their Hands.

Parma, July 2. The 28th of laſt Month an Expreſs arrived from Modena, who deliver'd his Diſpatches to the Infant Duke, and his Royal Highneſs returned an Anſwer to them on the Spot. The Contents of thoſe Diſpatches have not yet tranſpired; But the Councils extraordinary held at Modena, and their frequent exerciſing the Troops of that Dutchy, are apt to make the Publick conclude that they muſt needs be dreaming of War.

Utrecht, July 18. What lately happened to Commodore Keppel at Carthagena, makes great Noiſe in this Country, and is variouſly repre- ſented. Letters from London relate the Affair thus: That Want of Water and Careening having obliged that Officer to put into Carthagena, the Governor ſent him Word to ſheer off; and that Mr. Keppel being ſurpriſed at ſuch a Reception in Time of Peace, demanded the Reaſon of it, but was anſwered by a Volley of Cannon Shot. Other Letters from London, dated the 14th, give a more probable and natural Account of the Matter: They ſay, that the Governor of Carthagena refuſed to admit Commodore Kepple, unleſs he would ſubmit to perform Quarantine, as his Squadron was returned from the Ports of Africa, and there was ſome Reaſon to ſuſpect it might have brought away ſome contagious Diſtemper: And that Mr. Kepple flatly refuſed to ſubmit to the Quarantine, not only becauſe he judged his Squadron to be healthy, but alſo becauſe he thought it was an Order or Regulation which Men of War were not bound to obſerve. Some Letters from Spain relate the Affair much to the ſame Purpoſe; but none of theſe Advices are clear in this material Circumſtance, viz. Whether the Spaniſh Governor fired at the Engliſh Commodore before or after his refuſing to perform Quarantine.

Leghorn, July 2. The Maſter of a French Ship juſt arrived here reports, that a Venetian Man of War, ſtationed in the Adriatick Sea, has ſunk a Barbary Corſair, and taken another of eight Guns and 64 Men.

LONDON, July 2.

We hear that the private Letters dated the 26th of November, that came with the Expreſs over Land to the East-India Company, bring Advice that the Diſturbances at Surat and Tillicherry, two Settlements on the Malabar Coaſt belonging to the Engliſh, are likely to continue, and that the Natives have declared a Nabob in the French Intereſt.

July 4. It ſeems that the French and the Dutch know how to deal with the Spaniards in the Weſt-Indies, and without waiting for tedious judicial Forms, either make Repriſals, for the Depredations of the Guarda Coſtas, or elſe by thundering Menaces, as the Governor of Martinico has lately done, force immediate Reſtitution from the Spaniſh Governors: And cannot England learn ſomething from their Example? Muſt the greateſt Maritime Power in the World be the moſt patient of any under Inſults? Is ſhe to be fobb'd off with a quibbling Diſtinction between commiſſion'd Guarda Coſtas and non-commiſſion'd Ones? Patience and Forbearance are Chriſtian Virtues in private Men, and in their own particular Concerns; every Man may, if he pleaſes, ſuffer himſelf to be robbed and plundered, provided he is the only Sufferer by it; but between Nations the Caſe is otherwiſe: Patience under Robbery and Inſults is Puſillanimity. Let the Sufferers by it ſubjoin whatever worſe Epithet their Indignation may ſuggeſt

July 6. According to late Advices from Georgia, which may be depended upon, the exacteſt Experiments have been made there in Reſpect to the Probability of raiſing Silk, and that it has been found that a hundred Worms in America make one third more of Silk, and of a better Quality, than a hundred Worms in Italy; and that there is proportionably the ſame Advantage in their Multiplication; ſo that there is no Room to doubt, that if that Colony was once well peopled, we might receive for our own Manufactures what coſts us annually an immenſe Sum in ready Money.

'Tis ſaid a conſiderable Number of Forces will be raiſed, in order to be ſhipped on board the outward bound Fleet for the East-Indies, for the better Security of the Company's Settlements in thoſe Parts.

July 8. Private Letters by Monday's French Mail bring Advice, that the Squadron which ſailed from Breſt the 9th of July laſt Year, and touched at Moſembick in order to make a Settlement on that Coaſt, has ſince ſteered eaſtward, and is arrived at the Iſle of Bourbon.

July 9. Letters from Berlin of the 4th Inſt. N. S. obſerve that his Pruſſian Majeſty had been for ſeveral Days paſt very buſy with his Miniſters; that the Affairs of the Empire ſeemed to be the Object of their Conſultations; and that they talked at Court of taking ſome Meaſures to procure the Houſe of Anhalt Satisfaction for its Pretenſions to the Dutchy of Lauenbourg, concerning which ſome ſharp Reflections are to be found in the King of Pruſſia's late Memorial about East-Friſeland.

From Toulon we hear, that the Squadron under the Command of M. du Reveſt, which has frightened the Regency of Tripoli into a Treaty very honourable to the Crown of France, muſt by this Time be joined by another Squadron from Toulon, commanded by M. de Villarzel; and 'tis generally ſuppoſed they are to go to Tunis, in order to reſtore the old Dey, and put an End to the Civil Wars in that Country.

July 13. They write from Hanover, That his Majeſty has received a Courier from Vienna, with Advice, that all Differences between the Imperial and Pruſſian Courts are adjuſted, and that the Earl of Hyndford and the Imperial Miniſters are actually conſulting about giving Satisfaction to the Electoral Houſes of Saxony and Palatine. The latter, it is ſaid, demands of England Fifty Thouſand Pounds Sterling, and Five Hundred Thouſand Florins from another Power, for Proviſions and Forrage furniſhed to their Troops during the late War.

Letters from Naples bring Advice, That the King of the two Sicilies has acceded to the Treaty of Madrid for ſecuring the Repoſe of Italy.

According to ſome Advices from Paris, they talk of ſome Overtures towards reſtoring a good Harmony between their Court and the Ruſſian Empire.

The laſt Letters from Breſt bring a Confirmation, that the Pomona Frigate had taken two Engliſh Interlopers, that were trading with the French Colonies, valued at 25,000 Livres; and that the Leopard Frigate took another Engliſh Ship, detected in a contraband Trade, whoſe Cargo they reckon to be worth about 40,000 Livres.

July 15. From Paris we have Advice, that an Embaſſador is arrived there from Spain, and that one Part of his Commiſſion is to procure the French Court's Acceſſion to the Treaty lately concluded at Madrid for preventing new Broils in Italy. This Embaſſador is the Marqueſs de Sotto-Major, who was one of the Spaniſh Plenipotentiaries at the Conferences of Aix-la-Chapelle.

Monday five Barrels of the Britiſh Pickled Herrings were bought at the publick Sale by Order of the Royal Family, for their own Uſe, and of thoſe belonging to their Court.

July 17. The Conduct of the French King, with Regard to the Differences between the Parliament and the Clergy, ſeems very fluctuating. The laſt French Mail tells us, that he has approved of the Parliamentary Proceedings, and perhaps the next may inform us of his eſpouſing the Intereſt of the Clergy, as has been more than once the Caſe ſince this Diſpute commenced; but it may reaſonably be ſuppoſed, that firm Adherence to one Side, and a ſteady Reſolution to carry Deſigns into Execution, would have had a much more powerful Tendence to ſuppreſs theſe Heats and Animoſities. In the mean Time it may not be diſagreeable to Britons, if theſe domeſtick Diviſions in France ſhould divert the Attention of the French Miniſtry, from encreaſing their naval Power, and extending their Commerce.

On Wedneſday Morning one of the Tranſports in the River fell down to Woolwich, in order to take on board her Stores, &c. which are ſaid to be going for Georgia.

Charles-Town, South-Carolina, Auguſt 10.

Capt. Baddley, lately arrived from St. Auguſtine, informs us, that there were upwards of 100 Creek Indians in that Town, deſiring Leave to ſettle a Town near that Place, and that an Engliſh Trader was with them: That great Preparations were making at Campeachy, &c. for an Expedition againſt our Settlements upon the Muſquito Shore, the Spaniards intending to make a Settlement there themſelves, in order to wreſt all the Log-wood Trade out of our Hands; and that Don Melchior de Navaretta, the late Governor of St. Auguſtine, was appointed to command the Expedition.

The Snow Heſter, Capt. Kitts, of and for this Port, from the Bay of Hondoras, is taken by the Spaniards, and carried into the Havanna.

BOSTON, September 18.

Friday laſt his Majeſty's Ship Jaſon, of 40 Guns, Capt. Young Comander, arrived here from Hallifax.

NEW-YORK, September 25.

Thurſday laſt arrived here the Sloop Diamond, Nathaniel Lawrence Maſter, of this Port, from St. Domingo, but laſt from South Carolina; with whom came Paſſenger Capt. Viſcount of this Place, lately Commander of the Brig. Polly and Nancy, of Nevis, who informs us, that he was caſt away on the Spaniſh Main, near the Bay of Hondoras, on the 15th of January laſt, in a violent Noth Wind; which at the ſame time drove two Scooners aſhore alſo; one of which belonged to the Bay, and was commanded by one Richie of this Place.---The Spaniards took Capt. Viſcount and his Men, and travelled them a croſs the Spaniſh Main, to the City of Camiauga, within a Days Journey of Lima, on the South Seas, and intended to ſend him there; but on his Remonſtrances to the Governor, they travell'd them back again, with much Cruelty, and ſent them on board a Man of War to the Havanna; where Capt. Jaſper, in the Prince Henry Man of War, claimed them of the Spaniards:----The Prince Henry left the Havanna the 6th of July laſt, after being there nine Months (occaſioned by their being obliged to ſend to Jamaica, for Neceſſaries to refit her, after the Damage ſhe received by the Hurricane laſt Fall) and, on their coming off Georgia, in 18 Fathom Watter, they gave their Boat to Capt. Viſcount, and ſeveral other Engliſhmen, and then proceeded on their Voyage to England; Capt. Viſcount, after landing in Georgia, proceeded to Carolina, and from thence came home with Capt. Lawrence:----He further ſays, that the Spaniards on the Main in general, declared their Reſolutions to drive all the Engliſh out of the Bay, and to prevent their coming there any more.

Extract of a Letter from the Maſter of a Veſſel lately taken and carried into St. Domingo, dated July 6. 1752.

"The Privateer that took me, has taken a Dutch Snow, in Lat. 20, North, bound for Holland, from Coracoa; and altho' ſhe took in her Cargo there, and legally cleared from thence, was immediately condemned upon her Arrival here: Her Cargo conſiſted of Spaniſh Hydes, Cocoa, Wood, and Caſh, to the Amount of 50,000 Pieces of 8. This Privateer Brig. is ſtill out, and two or three more; and the Ferrit Sloop of War ſails from hence for Jamaica, To-morrow; and as ſoon as ſhe is gone, there is four or five more ready to go upon a Cruize, and every Veſſel they meet, will be in Danger of being loſt, if not made Prizes of.

By Capt. Mann, in 36 Days from the Bay of Hondoras, we have Advice, that on the Eleventh of June laſt, the Spaniards arrived there in ſeven armed Craft, and, after taking his and Burger's Flats, the ſame Night boarded Capt. Lawrence, in a Snow belonging to Rhode-Iſland; but being diſcovered by the Capts. Mann and Burger, who lay nigh at Hand, and fired ſo briſkly into them, as obliged them to quit the Snow, and make the beſt of their Way, without the leaſt Booty, leaving behind five of their Men, and the two Flats they had taken. Capt. Mann ſailed from the Bay in Company with the Capts. Burger, Jones, and Bowen, all of this Port, and Capt. Lawrence of Rhode-Iſland.

We learn from Capt. Brace, who touched here in his Way for New-London, from St. Martins, that he rode out the Storm which happened there the 19th ult. and believes that none of the Veſſels there received any Damage by it.

By Capt. Watſon, from Coracoa, we learn that the Spaniards cut out a Sloop belonging to that Place, which lay at Bonira; and that two Sloops were immediately fitted out at Coracoa, to go in Purſuit of them.

Captain Budden ſpoke with the Ship Polly, Captain Rogers, in the Thames, going up to London from this Place.

Captain Dewar, in the Ship Dolphin, was to ſail from London for this Port a few Days after Captain Budden; and the Captains Leak and Stirling were both up for this Place.

Since our laſt the Captains Abercrombie, Muir, Moore, Dunlap, Kenneway, Ewing, and Campbell, are arriv'd here from Holland with Palatines. Captain Campbell, about three Weeks ago, ſpoke with the Lark, Capt. Morriſon, from London for this Port; he was then 150 Leagues to the Eaſtward of our Capes.

Sunday Night laſt the Store of Mr. Moſes Standley, on Carpenter's Wharff, was broke open, and robb'd of ſome Sugar-loaves.

From Miniſink there is Advice, that on the 21ſt ult. three Children were burnt to Death there. The Mother of them had Occaſion to go to a Neighbour's Houſe, and left them ſhut up for fear of their getting out; but while ſhe was gone her Houſe took Fire, and before any Help could be got, the Children periſh'd in the Flames.

 In our laſt in the Advertiſement relating to the late John Faris's Eſtate, John Frazer was by Miſtake inſerted inſtead of John Faris.

THEOPHILUS GREW,
HORACE JONES.

Philadelphia, September 21, 1752.

IF Frances Riddle, who came in here a ſervant, about 26 years ago, and ſuppoſed to be married to one Richard Wagſtaff, a Leiceſterſhire man, is alive, and will call at the New-Printing-Office, ſhe will hear of ſomething to her advantage.

York County, September 18, 1752.

YEſterday, in the time of divine ſervice, the dwelling-houſe and ſtore of John Hamilton, near Little Conewago, in York county, was broke open, in his abſence, by his ſervant-man, named Hugh Matthews, who run away towards evening; he is of a middle ſtature, dark complexion, much pock-mark'd, and has the mark of a wound near his right eye, and marks of many cuts in his head: Took with him, a ſilk cap, blue broadcloth coat and jacket, half trimm'd, which 'tis probable he will wear, a pair of light colour'd alopeen breeches, ſundry pairs of new worſted ſtockings, old ſhoes, with very large copper buckles, three fine linnen ſhirts; alſo a piece of muſlin, and a piece of light colour'd camblet, with ſundry other ſhop-goods, not yet particularly known, a quantity of caſh, in paper, dollars and pennies, and a likely bay pacing horſe, eight years old, new ſhod all round, with a ſhort tail, and a ſtar in his face, branded on the near buttock with H, in the middle of a heart: 'Tis probable he croſſed the South-Mountain, and is gone either to Virginia or Allegheny. Whoever ſecures the ſaid robber in any goal, ſo as he may be brought to Juſtice, ſhall have Five Pounds reward, and reaſonable charges, paid by JOHN HAMILTON.

N. B. The horſe has grey hairs round the root of his tail, and is branded, as 'tis ſuppos'd, with I S beſides the above brand. ¶

NOtice is hereby given, that JAMES TROTTER will certainly go ſoon for England; he therefore requeſts all perſons that are indebted to him to make ſpeedy payment; and thoſe that have demands againſt him, to come and ſettle their accounts.

N. B. He has remaining an aſſortment of European goods, for the ſeaſon, that he will ſell exceeding cheap for ready money.
